<sup>2</sup> BNSF Railway Company is deemed to be a Movant in this Order notwithstanding that it has filed no motions for relief from stay. <sup>3</sup> National Railroad Passenger Corporation is deemed to be a Movant in this Order notwithstanding that it has filed no motions for relief from stay. National Railroad Passenger Corporation has joined in certain of the objections of BNSF Railway Company and has requested the entry of relief in favor of it. See Docket No. 594.

<sup>4</sup> Danny P. Landry and Susan P. Landry are deemed to be Movants in this Order notwithstanding that they have filed no motions for relief from stay. The Landrys, through counsel, have informally requested stay relief.

<sup>5</sup> Lillian Proctor is deemed to be a Movant in this Order notwithstanding that she has filed no motions for relief from stay. Ms. Proctor, through counsel, has informally requested stay relief.

set forth in this Order is in the best interests of the above-captioned Debtors and Debtors-in-Possession (each, a “Debtor” and collectively, the “Debtors”), their estates and creditors; and notice of the Motions being sufficient under the circumstances; and the Debtors and the Movants having agreed to the relief set forth herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY AGREED, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Motions are granted as set forth herein.
2. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Order, the Movants are granted relief from the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d) (“Stay Relief”) for cause shown with respect to each of the Debtors in these bankruptcy cases and their estates. From and after the entry of this Order, the Movants are permitted to institute, commence or proceed with any judicial, administrative or other proceeding (each, including the pending and to-be-filed actions referenced in the Motions, shall hereinafter be referred to as a “Proceeding”) against a Debtor that was or could have been commenced before January 3, 2012 (the “Petition Date”). Without limiting the foregoing: (a) each Movant may prosecute, including propounding discovery on the Debtors, a Proceeding to final judgment, including any subsequent appeals therefrom, and (b) the Stay Relief granted by this Order includes, but is not limited to, the claims of any Movant or any defendant in any Proceeding against any Debtor, including the commencement and prosecution of any cross-claims against the Debtors for indemnification or contribution, and (c) nothing herein shall limit the ability of any Movant to prosecute a Proceeding (including, without limitation, propounding discovery upon) and recover against any non-Debtor person or entity, and (d) the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362 is modified to the extent that it would enjoin any person from enforcing any rights under any insurance policies which may be implicated by the Movant’s claim(s).

3. All rights, all claims (including cross-claims and counter-claims), all causes of action and all defenses of all parties to any Proceeding are reserved and nothing in this Order is, or shall be deemed to be, a waiver of any such rights, claims, causes of action or defenses. The Order shall not alter, impair, modify, limit or expand: (i) the rights and duties of the Debtors, their insurers, or any other party in interest; or (ii) the insurance policies or any related agreements between any of the Debtors and their insurers.

4. Nothing herein shall grant the Movants Stay Relief to execute upon any judgment or settlement obtained against any Debtor, except to the extent of any available insurance policies or proceeds. Any Movant who litigates his or her claim(s) outside of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Court”) shall not receive distribution from the Debtors on account of his or her claim(s) in the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases unless (a) such claim(s) are settled or liquidated by a court of competent jurisdiction other than the Bankruptcy Court and (b) all reasonable efforts to obtain satisfaction of such claim(s) from the Debtors’ insurers have been pursued, and any coverage litigation relating to such claim(s) has been resolved; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall limit or prejudice the rights of Movants to have the Bankruptcy Court estimate their claims for voting purposes or to object to confirmation of any plan proposed in the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases including, specifically, the classification and treatment of Movants’ claims and the issue of whether a reserve needs to be established for Movant’s claims; provided, further, however, that the Debtors and all parties in interest reserve the right to, without limitation, (i) object to any claims asserted in the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases on grounds other than the merits of the underlying, liquidated claim(s), (ii) object to any requests by any Movant to have the Bankruptcy Court estimate such Movant’s claim(s) for voting purposes, and/or (iii) oppose any objection by any Movant to confirmation of any plan proposed in the Debtors’ bankruptcy cases. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are hereby authorized, but not directed, to pay any Movant’s claims, or any amount owed to the Debtors’ insurers in respect of such claims, as such amounts become due and payable, and any such payment, once made, shall not be (i) avoidable under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or (ii) subject to disgorgement, clawback, avoidance or rescission based on any order of the Bankruptcy Court approving (x) a sale of the Debtors’ assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, (y) debtor-in-possession financing or (z) confirmation of a plan of reorganization.

5. The automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) is modified to permit the Debtors' insurers to pay claims and claim-related expenses (including but not limited to arrearages) and to exercise any and all rights and fulfill any and all obligations under all policies providing insurance coverage to the Debtors or under any related agreements, as related to the Movants' claims, without prejudice to any rights the Debtors' insurers may have against the Debtors or otherwise.

6. The Stay Relief granted pursuant to this Order shall not be affected by any provision of (i) any order authorizing the sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets, (ii) any order implementing ADR procedures in these bankruptcy cases, or (iii) any order converting these cases to cases under Chapter 7. This Order shall be binding on any trustee or other successor to the Debtors in these bankruptcy cases, or any chapter 7 trustee appointed in the Debtors' bankruptcy cases (if these cases are converted to cases under chapter 7).

7. Within five (5) business days of the entry of this Order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of this Order, via first class mail, postage prepaid, upon any insurer which issued a policy of insurance providing liability, excess or umbrella coverage to any of the Debtors on the date of any accident which is the subject of a Proceeding, and shall take all other actions, if any, necessary to comply with the Debtors' obligations as insureds under the policies.

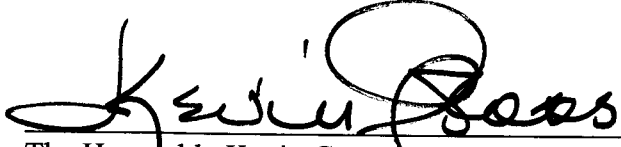

8. Within thirty (30) days of the entry of this Order, the Debtors shall produce complete copies of the Policies which may cover any of the claims asserted in any Proceeding (including to-be-filed actions) to respective counsel.

9. This Order may be made applicable to any party who is not a Movant upon the Debtors' filing of a Notice of Joinder substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A executed by the Debtors and the joining party.

10. The provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3) are hereby waived. This Order shall be effective on May 1, 2012.

11. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear any disputes arising out of the implementation of this Order.

DATED: April 3, 2012

The Honorable Kevin Gross
Chief Judge, United States Bankruptcy Court
